Eucharistic Ministers

This Palm Sunday is an invitation into the life and story of Christ. As you hear the passion proclaimed may it stir you like never before. What do you see, what do you learn. I suggest we make the story today more invitation than admonition. Enter into the story. Make the Christ story your story. Peace be with you. I hope you and your family can attend as many of the Holy Week services as possible. These are sacred and Holy Times. Peace be with you.
 Fr. Todd

I trust God more than I trust myself.

— Archbishop James R. Golka

We start today looking through the portals of Jerusalem, seeing crowds of people, cheering and waving palm branches in the air. The whole atmosphere is one of joy, triumph, and celebration. We can get distracted or enthralled by the scene, and not see clearly the features of Jesus as he enters. But our readings from Isaiah and Paul's letter to the Philippians clarify his features for us. He is the Suffering Servant, meek and mute before his captors and persecutors; he is the very image of the unseen God, yet will not clutch at equality with God before he endures his final confrontation in humility. Isaiah and Paul help us "behold the Lamb of God" before we hear the story of his final and greatest confrontation. It is important that we see Christ clearly before we hear the account of his passion, for we — his Body through baptism, the church — now bear his face. We must, with him, enter into this time of trial so we can, also with him, enter into his final triumph.

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life — especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.
